FINE HOMESITE

H. B. WOODILL WILL HAVE A BEAUTIFUL HOME IN GLENDALE HEIGHTS TRACT.

More and more, men of wealth are beginning to realize that there are many beautiful spots in and around Glendale that are unsurpassable as homesites. Many are the beautiful homes in the foothills of North Glendale and in Glendale Heights. Among the men who have seen in the latter tract, wonderful possibilities, is H. B. Woodill of the firm of Woodill & Hulse, Electric Co., Los Angeles. A little more than a year ago Mr. Woodill purchased of the Los Angeles & Arizona Land company, a tract 300x360 feet at the corner of Opeeche Way and Bonita Drive, which he has been laying out in gardens and drives and on which he is now preparing to build a home.

Those who have already built homes in the Glendale Heights tract have recognized the fact that the natural beauty is the most desirable feature and where landscape gardening has been done, it harmonizes with the wild setting rather than overcomes it. So in laying out his grounds, Mr. Woodill has utilized two very prominent mounds or small hills near the center of his tract to carry out a very beautiful landscape effect, rather than leveling them, as some might have done. Water is piped to the top of these knolls and finds its way through the grounds in a tiny, crystal brook whose banks are outlined with rocks and many colored flowers and spanned with rustic bridges while lamps designed to suit the surroundings sit here and there and will serve to make the grounds a beauty spot by night as well as by day. Surrounding the grounds on all four sides at frequent intervals are concrete standards, bearing sixteen inch globes that will both beautify and light the gardens.

A large lath summer house where all kinds of flowers and plants will be grown has been erected, a very spacious garage has been completed and pine trees line the drives already laid out.

As for the view, it is unsurpassed, almost surrounded by hills and mountains that lend an air of wild beauty and charm.

The home will occupy the southwest corner of the tract and it will correspond in architecture, size and completeness with its setting.

The house will cost $15,000 and will consist of eleven rooms. Plans are being made for a very complete and modern suburban residence.

CHORAL CLUB SOCIAL.

The Glendale Choral club had a very enjoyable social evening closing the season on Tuesday evening at the guild hall of St. Mark's Episcopal church. About seventy-five members and guests were present, including some prominent musicians from Los Angeles and Glendale.

An excellent musical program was given, opened with a bass solo by Mr. C. H. Cunningham, accompanied by Mrs. Cunningham. Mrs. Frank Arnold delighted the audience with her beautiful voice in a contralto solo. She was accompanied by Miss Gertrude Champlain. A male quartet from the Sanitarium, consisting of Messrs. Culver, Colcord, Jones and Sturdevant, accompanied by Mr. Darky, were well received and it was real treat to hear them. Then rs. James Orth sang very beautiilly and Mr. Poulin delighted the udience with a tenor solo, which as loudly applauded, and he reponded with an encore. Mr. Poulin as accompanied by Miss Grace Berard.

Mr. Ringquest, the club president, oke of plans for the coming year, id particularly of his ambition to ave the club maintained next year an association membership. He ppointed a committee of which Mrs. L. Bryant is chairman. Mr. Ringest spoke of having social meetgs of the club throughout the sumer at intervals of about every six eeks, until the opening of the sean in September. He thanked the ficials of the club, particularly Mrs. M. Stanley the treasurer, for their ork during the year. Also the embers and patrons who have lared to make the club such a grand ccess, especially the school truses for allowing the use of the interediate school for the weekly reearsals, also The Glendale Evening ews for its very generous space.

A vote of thanks was tendered Mr. ingquest for his untiring efforts in ganizing the club and presiding so ccessfully throughout the year.

Refreshments were served, Mrs. elen I. Campbell in charge. Mrs. L. Peckham and Mrs. William acRae presided at the table.

The whole evening was one of a cial, congenial character, and will ng be pleasantly remembered by l present.

ACCEPT REPORT

GLENDALE CITY TRUSTEES PASS RESOLUTION IN REPLY TO C. OF C. REPORT

To the Executive committee of the Glendale Chamber of Commerce and to Mr. John W. Usilton, president:

Gentlemen: The board of trustees of the city of Glendale beg to acknowledge receipt from you of a copy of your report concerning your investigation of the municipal affairs as conducted by the present board of trustees and the city administration. Your report was on motion referred to the committee of the whole where it is now being duly considered.

We feel that too much consideration cannot be given to the number of valuable suggestions contained in your report. The Chamber of Commerce should be, and indeed, we feel that it is, the principal representative civic organization of our city. The personnel of your committee is sufficient to guarantee to this board that your recommendations and suggestions are made for no other purpose than to assist the board in the performance of its duty. The board of trustees are always grateful for any assistance offered them by those who really have the good of the city at heart.

During the past five years the city of Glendale has experienced a growth in population unparalleled by that of any city in her class and size in Southern California, having gone from a population of about 2700 to approximately 10,000 at this time. The business and the needs of the city government have necessarily been increased accordingly. A number of important, permanent improvements have been effected, the city has taken decided steps toward municipal ownership of the public utilities; the cost of service has been greatly reduced, in some cases as much as fifty per cent. During this period of transition through which the city has passed, it has been necessary for the board of trustees to avail itself of the assistance of men at the heads of the different departments who are thoroughly capable and efficient in their respective duties. It has been the policy of the board to obtain in all the departments the greatest efficiency possible for the price the city could afford to pay. We believe this is to the best interest of the people of the city. With this in view we wish to assure you that your suggestions will be given due consideration and where and when conditions will permit we shall be pleased to avail ourselves of the recommendations contained in your report.

SPANKING SENTENCE.

Police Judge J. J. Hart, a Long Beach judge, imposed a sentence of "twelve hard strokes with the rod on the bare hide" on Kenneth Reider and Leslie Hall, both aged fifteen years, after the boys had pleaded guilty to petty thievery Monday.

In accordance with his sentence the mothers of the lads took them into an ante room and that they were carrying out the instructions of the court to the letter was evidenced by the "ohs" and "ouchs" eminating from the spanking room. When they emerged, red faced and tearful, from the chamber of punishment, the boys readily agreed to refrain from breaking the law.

Detective Winters arrested the lads after numerous reports of thefts from automobiles parked near the Long Beach city hall. The pair are said to have owned up that they took the articles. Judge Hart declared that it would be a mistake to send them to jail to be made into crooks. He therefore pronounced the spanking sentence.

COLUMBUS AVENUE PARENT-TEACHERS WILL MEET.

Mrs. B. F. Force of 1563 Penn street, has been very ill at her home for the past two weeks, but is better now and her friends are hoping that she may have a speedy recovery.

CITY TRUSTEES TRANSACT IMPORTANT BUSINESS

F. R. SINCLAIR AWARDED CONTRACT ON SYCAMORE AVENUE — PROTESTS AGAINST PLANTING TREES ON VERDUGO ROAD HEARD—MERCHANTS TAX ORDINANCE TAKEN UP FOR READING AND PASSAGE.

The regular meeting of the board of trustees of the city of Glendale was held in the city hall, Monday evening March 22, 1915. Present, O. A. Lane, president of the board; trustees Charles Grist, J. S. Thompson, A. W. Tower and George Williams. Also present city manager, T. W. Watson; city clerk, J. C. Sherer; city attorney, W. E. Evans; H. B. Lynch, manager of the city public service department; Edward M. Lynch, city engineer; G. B. Hoffman, city treasurer.

The minutes of the preceding meeting were read by City Clerk J. C. Sherer and same were approved as read.

Communications were taken up for reading. A communication from the board of state control said that the state had not been given a chance to submit a bid for the purchase of the water bonds. In reference to this communication H. B. Lynch, manager of the public service department, said that the state board of control had been notified of the fact that the bonds were for sale and that their communication did not state the facts in the case. The question was referred to the manager of the public service department.

Bids for doing street improvement work in Sycamore Canyon were opened and read. Bids were submitted by F. R. Sinclair and Peter L. Ferry. On motion the bids were referred to the city engineer, who later in the evening reported that as Contractor Sinclair was the lowest bidder in making the improvements in Sycamore Canyon, he recommended that the contract be awarded to him. On motion the contract was awarded to Mr. Sinclair. Notice of the award is published elsewhere in this issue of The Evening News.

An application was made by Walter Smith of Adams street for right to sell milk. The application was approved by Milk Inspector George H. Herald. Mr. Smith's request was granted.

The following communication was read from the Merchant's association:

Glendale, Cal., March 22, 1915.

TO HONORABLE BOARD OF TRUSTEES, GLENDALE, CAL.

Gentlemen—Below you will find copy of resolution passed by the Merchant's association at their meeting held on March 18.

Whereas: Some few months ago the board of trustees of the city of Glendale requested that a committee representing the board of trustees, the city manager, the Chamber of Commerce, the Merchant's association, the property owners in and about Broadway and Maryland, the property owners in and about Third and Glendale avenue, and the local lumber dealers, be appointed for the purpose of recommending a site for the location of an industrial district, which recommendation it was understood at that time would be accepted by the board of trustees, and,

Whereas: Said committee was appointed, and after diligent investigation and consideration unanimously reported to the board of trustees, and,

Whereas: We believe said committee was a representative one and justly considered all phases of this question and that its recommendation represented their honest opinions, therefore, be it,

Resolved: That the Merchant's association here assembled hereby endorse the acts of our member on that committee, and be it further,

Resolved: That we do hereby condemn the acts of the city trustees in discharging said committee from further consideration of this question.

W. H. CRANE,
Secretary.

The above resolution on motion was received and ordered placed on file.

A communication was read from Albert Searle, opposing the building of the Canada Boulevard bridge; his opposition being that his property was not located near the bridge and be therefore would not receive any benefit from the improvement. On motion the hearing of protests against the building of the Canada Boulevard bridge and improvements on the wash adjoining the bridge was taken up for consideration. On motion the protest was denied.

On motion the hearing of protests against the improvement to be made by planting of trees on Verdugo Road was taken up for consideration. Several weeks ago, complying with petitions from property owners on Verdugo Road, a resolution was adopted by the board of trustees designating that the trees to be planted on that road should be the California Live Oak, Acacia Molissima and Catalina Cherry varieties. Some of the signers of the petition did not fully understand the intention of the petition and other property owners on that street were not in favor of the trees adopted. It seemed to be the general opinion of those protesting that the live oak is not a suitable tree for park purposes as it is not considered the most beautiful tree in existence and is very slow in growth. The names of a number of trees that might be suitable were suggested. A meeting has been set for Friday evening at 8 p. m., at the home of Mr. James Ewins, 747 Verdugo Road, at which time the property owners on Verdugo Road are expected to be present and determine what trees they prefer to have planted on this road. Those speaking on this question were D. W. Root, Mrs. D. W. Root, Mr. James Ewins and Mr. J. R. Mitchell.

A communication was read from F. Wilkinson who is compiling a city directory for the cities of Glendale, Tropico and Casa Verdugo, offering to take the census of the city of Glendale in consideration that he be paid $50 for the work. After a few minutes discussion this communication was laid over until the next meeting.

City Manager T. W. Watson informed the board that the state milk inspector had been making visits to the various dairies supplying milk to Glendale.

The question of planting trees on Colorado street, formerly Sixth street, was taken up for consideration, but by common consent of the board the question was postponed for one week when it will be taken up for further consideration.

H. B. Lynch, manager of the public service department, asked the board to authorize him to call for bids for the purchasing of electric light standards for Brand Boulevard and Kenwood streets. The request was granted. The manager of the public service department stated that $87,000 of the water bonds had been sold to the Staats company, and he considers that one of the first important items is to make further improvement upon the wells now in use. The board instructed the manager of the public service department to notify the water companies whose plants have not already been taken over, that the bonds have been sold and that this city is now ready to take over the water systems.

City Engineer Edward M. Lynch presented a resolution for the improvement of a certain portion of Canada Boulevard in the form of building a bridge. The same was read and adopted. The resolution is published elsewhere in this issue.

City Attorney Evans reported that he had received the easements from the Pacific Electric Railway company for Seventh and Chestnut streets. In examining the documents, he finds that they do not conform to the decision of the railroad commission, and that as he considers it very important to have them conform to the ruling of this commission, he asks the privilege of returning the easements to the railroad company with a view of having them make changes to have the easements conform to the decision of the commission. The permission asked for by the attorney was granted.

The finance committee asked another week's time in which to make a full report as to the employer's liability insurance proposition which had been referred to them at a previous meeting.

On motion the following demands were allowed and warrants ordered down on the treasurer:

F. E. Boynton, distillate, for street department	$ 3.60

He expects to spend three years on this trip. He carries with him a note book in which he secures the signatures of editors and mayors of the cities through which he passes. In another book he secures the signatures of station agents and operators.

FATHERS ENTERTAINED.

Under the auspices of the Colorado Boulevard Parent Teachers' association Miss Carrie Ormsby very pleasantly entertained the interested fathers, mothers and friends of the kindergarten last Friday evening in the Misses Waite and Tipton's rooms.

A regular morning's program of kindergarten work was carried out by everybody, which caused much merriment. As nobody was over five years old splendid marching, galloping, skipping, as well as other athletic feats were indulged in.

Irish national songs were played on the piano and Victrola in honor of St. Patrick's day. Light refreshments were served at the close, and after expressing appreciation to Miss Ormsby for a very profitably spent evening the guests departed.

FAMILY NIGHT.

The Parent-Teachers' association of the high school will hold "Family Night" at the high school Thursday of this week, March 25, at 8 o'clock.

FIRST CREMATIONS IN AMERICA

Thirty-eight years ago the first scientific cremation in the United States took place at Washington, Pa. The pioneer cremator was Dr. Julius Le Moyne, and the subject was the body of Baron de Palm, a Russian theosophist. The following spring the body of Mrs. Benjamin Pitman of Cincinnati was cremated. But the American precedent had been set 83 years before when under penalty of losing a legacy of 60,000pounds if he refused, the son of Henry Laurens, South Carolina's revolutionary patriot, consigned his father's body to a funeral pyre. The ghastly experience of seeing his infant child come to life just before burial in the earth is said to have been responsible for Laurens' demand to be cremated.

ALL SUSCEPTIBLE.

It was a woman long married who wisely said to a bride:

"If you want to keep your husband jolly him."

The device applies to husbands. It applies to wives. For that matter it's a pretty good receipe for oiling any part of the machinery of life.

The other morning, in a crowded car a conductor helped a woman with a heavy bundle. She thanked him graciously, took his number and promised to write a note of praise to the boss.

You should have seen that conductor's face beam.

She may not have kept her word; possibly she was only jollying him.

But, accustomed as he was, to fretful kicks and knocks, just this little glint of sunshine gilded the day for him and made him courteous the rest of the route.

Yes; we're all susceptible to blarney. Even when we know it isn't very deep, we like it. We say we don't stand for it, but the grouchiest of us are, nevertheless, more or less tickled.

MODESTY.

It must not be supposed that because the Kaiser quoted Shakespeare —"To be or not be"—in his original manifesto, His Majesty is a good Shakespearean. The contrary may be surmised from an incident which occurred at a lunch at one of the Berlin embassies.

An English diplomat was discussing some big affair of the moment with a lady. "As our immortal William has observed," the diplomat remarked, "There is a tide in the affairs of men that, taken at the flood, leads on to fortune."

The Kaiser looked puzzled.

"That is quite true," he is said to have acquiesced, "but I don't remember saying it."—London Tit-Bits.

CALIFORNIA AS A PRODUCER OF PERFUMES.

Necessity being the renowned mother of invention, it is inevitable that as a result of the prolongation of the European war, which Lord Kitchener observes is to "start on the first of May," the people of the United States will be compelled to undertake home manufacture of many commodities which hitherto have been purchased exclusively in the markets of Europe. Once we embark upon ventures of this sort we will be slow to withdraw, for it is an American characteristic to carry endeavors to a successful termination. And likewise, it is one of our characteristics to do better things, once we have mastered the "know-how," than do those from whom we take our lessons. We are always keen for improved methods, for economics and innovations, says the Tribune.

In this connection it has been pointed out that California now has the opportunity to become the world's perfume center. There is nothing magic about the soil, the sunshine or atmosphere of Providence or the Balkan slopes. They produce nothing in the way of raw material that we not do not or can not produce. These and certain other districts have merely been permitted to localize the perfume industry. They have the advantage of "reputation," "going business," and the established habit of perfume-purchasing connoisseurs.

Our chance to break into this industry has come, and it only remains for concerns backed by sufficient capital to take the lead.—Venice Vanguard.

Baseball having now become a continuous performance, is somewhat of a bore. It ought to know just when to give the public a thorough letting-alone.

A Jeromeless Thaw case is pretty sure to lose some of its picturesque interest for the public.

Notice is hereby given that the said Board of Trustees, in open session, on the 22nd day of March, 1915, opened, examined and publicly declared all sealed proposals offered for the following improvement, to-wit:

The improvement on a portion of Sycamore avenue described in Resolution of Intention Number 787, to which said Resolution reference is hereby made for a description of said work.

The Board of Trustees of the City of Glendale determines that serial bonds shall be issued to represent assessments of twenty-five dollars ($25.00) or over for the cost of said work or improvement; said serial bonds shall extend over a period ending nine (9) years from and after the second day of January next succeeding the date of said bonds, and an even annual proportion of the principal sum thereof shall be payable by coupon on the second day of January every year after their date until the whole is paid; and the interest shall be payable semi-annually by coupon on the second day of January and July, respectively, of each year, at the rate of seven (7) per cent per annum on all sums unpaid, until the whole of said principal and interest are paid. Said bonds shall be issued in accordance with the provisions of an Act of the Legislature of the State of California entitled "An Act to provide a system of street improvement bonds to represent certain assessments for the cost of street work and improvements within municipalities, and also for the payment of such bonds," approved February 27, 1893, and of all acts supplementary thereto and amendatory thereof.

And thereafter, to-wit: On the 22nd day of March, 1915, awarded the contract for said work to the lowest regular responsible bidder, to-wit: To F. R. Sinclair at the prices named for said improvement in his proposal on file for said improvement, to-wit:

Grading, per linear foot, 15 cents. Oiling and macadamizing, per square foot, .0530 cents.

And that said award has been approved by the President of the Board of Trustees of said City of Glendale.

Clerk's office, City of Glendale, California, March 23, 1915.

J. C. SHERER,
City Clerk and Ex-Officio Clerk of the Board of Trustees of the City of Glendale, California. 185t2

EAGLE ROCK.

Saturday a large number of men gathered to do more work on the Presbyterian church being erected on Palm avenue and much was accomplished. At noon the ladies served a hot dinner and the hungry men appreciated it, indeed.

Rev. Smith, pastor of the Methodist church beginning with two weeks ago Sunday, will deliver a sermon in the morning, previous to his other sermon, especially for the children. He is taking his subjects in alphabetical order and sometime in the future he will give a prize to the child who has been present at every one of these talks and is able to give the title of each.

Mrs. S. Simons addressed the Women's Twentieth Century club a week ago Thursday on various subjects pertaining to the interests of the club. This was the first regular meeting to be held in the new club house since its completion.

Many little friends of Emma Van Der Sluis were surprised and grieved to learn of her death which occurred Friday afternoon. She was about twelve years old and a member of Miss Crandall's Sunday school class of the Methodist Episcopal church. Six little girls from the class acted as pallbearers. They were Myrtle Crandall, Irene Miller, Viola McCormick, Jewel Feaster, Laura and Rose Crouch. They also sang a song at the funeral and gave a floral wreath as tribute to their departed little friend. Services were held at the Pulliam Undertaking Parlors and interment was at Forest Lawn cemetery. Besides a host of friends little Emma leaves her parents and a sister, Helen Van Der Sluis to mourn her death.

Dr. Gibbons who is over eighty years old delivered a splendid sermon Sunday morning at the Congregational church.

The O. F. F. club girls were entertained at the home of Mildred Mason on Ridgeway avenue last Saturday evening. The rooms were decorated in green and emblems such as are used in decorating for St. Patrick's day affairs. Various contests were enjoyed and prizes were won by Miss Beryl Jeter and Mrs. Harry Phinney. Delicious refreshments in green and white were served.

There are in the news columns frequent demonstrations that the man who leads a dual life is judged by the worse half of his career when it comes to a show-down.

When you talk to a man and his eyes wander, you can set it down pretty sure that he is either weak in general or weak in particular on your topic and cause.

TROPICO.

It might be well for those who are so eager to condemn a fellow citizen to ascertain the true state of affairs and then if the facts will warrant, which is a question in the minds of those who desire to practice the Golden Rule, refrain from unkind words. Before circulating reports relative to the attitude of certain members of the board of trustees of Tropico, it might be well to ask of those officials just what and why they did or the remarks they made relative to permitting a liquor license in Tropico. We often judge each other harshly and then when too late learn we erred in our judgment and were instrumental in circulating an untruth. Let us be kind and forbearing and aid our city officials in the performance of their official duties. We are too prone to condemn when they do too much and condemn when they do not do enough. Pause and inquire: "Could I do as well under the circumstances?" The citizens are signing the petitions and all are pleased to thus declare their attitude relative to a saloon in our city limits and the city council, while twice denying the application made by the liquor interests of Los Angeles, are ready to deny for the third time. These five men fully realize what a blot it would be upon the fair name of Tropico, what disaster it would mean for the best interests of our city and what contumacy it would prove for them and their own good names. Let all with one accord fight against the liquor men, fully realizing that our city council will do the proper thing.

Samuel Sharp celebrated his ninety-second birthday anniversary at his home on West Cypress street Friday, surrounded by his two faithful daughters Miss Ellen Sharp and Miss Amaretta Sharp, and neighbors and friends. Following the dinner which was served at noon, Mr. Sharp enjoyed a pleasant drive throughout the valley. This venerable man, who is still hale and hearty is one of Tropico's pioneers, having come here twenty-five years or more ago. Many are the changes and improvements in this valley which have been keenly noted by Mr. Sharp.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Oren of Colorado City, Colorado, who are spending three months visiting in Southern California, and who have been passing a few days as the guests of Dr. and Mrs. Roy V. Hogue, are now visiting Mrs. David H. Imler at Palm Villa on West Park avenue.

Mrs. L. C. Rice leaves for Venice Wednesday, where she will spend several days at their beach residence.

Dr. and Mrs. R. V. Hogue entertained with a dinner party Saturday evening complimentary to Mr. and Mrs. Leon Errol of New York City, who have been in Los Angeles for several days. Mrs. Errol, wife of the distinguished Leon Errol is a cousin of Mrs. Hogue, and Saturday's dinner party proved to be a most delightful reunion as well. Other guests entertained by Dr. and Mrs. Hague were Mrs. Addie Allen and Mrs. Clara Linkogle.

THE HELLESPONT.

It is the oldest and longest war in the world whose last battle the British fleet is now fighting in the Dardanelles. For this is the Hellespont, which Leander swam for the love of Hero. Here the thousand ships of Agamemnon sailed, to besiege the topless towers of Ilium. Here Achilles dragged the body of Hector around the Trojan walls, and from these shores Aeneas and Ulysses sailed. Over these straits Xerxes built his bridge of boats, and hurled the Persian hordes which, but for Salamis, might have made Europe Oriental. Across these same straits, a century and a half later, Alexander led his Macedonians, to make Asia Occidental. At the head of these straits Byzas built the town which Constantine afterward made the capital of the world. There, for more than a thousand years, Grecian civilization defended itself against Goths and Visigoths and Scythians and Saracens, until the cannon of Mohammed the Conqueror overcame the unquenchable Greek fire of Paleologus and the Janissaries tethered their horses to the altars of St. Sophia. Here the crusaders, with the fleet of Dandolo, once captured the city, and crowned Baldwin of the West brief enperor of the east. Here, for half a thousand years, the Turk has succeeded where the Persian had failed, in annexing Byzantium to the Orient. And here for two centuries, the jealousies of Europe have emulated the impotence of the ancient jealousies of Greece. In these straits, for a whole century, British fleets have barred to Russia the very gates which they are now opening for her to the warm water. And here, at last, where Christian fear had protected Islam, Christian hate is now expelling the Turk, and the Kyrie Eleison may again be heard in St. Sophia, where for five hundred years the Muezzin has called the faithful for prayers. Here where the two worlds meet, where the Castle of Asia, the Khilidi-Bahar, still frowns across at the Castle of Europe, the Chanak Kalesi, Europe and Asia have fought since the dawn before history. There are more stories in the stones of Troas than in all the libraries in the world. Greeks and Trojans, Persians, Byzantines, Goths and Saracens—it is the last chapter of their long drama which the cannon of Europe are now beating out, at the gateway of the east and west.—California Outlook.

SNOW STOPS TRAFFIC BUT NOT CADILLAC EIGHT.

Car Goes Through Omaha Drifts As High As Itself.

The winter has probably not shown the snow-bucking ability of the Cadillac Eight so well as it was displayed very recently at Omaha, Neb.

The city awoke one morning to find all traffic blockaded and the streets deep under the drifts of a snow storm that would have done credit to the middle of February. Trolley cars were helplessly blockaded for hours, and automobiles were nowhere visible. Business men and workmen stayed at home or reached their places of employment as best they could.

It appeared to George Reim, of the Cadillac Company of Omaha, to be an opportunity to try out the eight-cylinder car with a test more severe than any that had been imposed locally. A telephone message was sent to a man known to the company, and who was marooned in a trolleyless suburb, and he accepted the invitation to ride downtown in the Cadillac.

Half an hour later the Cadillac was at his door, and within an hour or a little more, he was at his office. Frequently the snow was piled higher than the radiator ahead of the car, and it repeatedly ploughed through drifts almost as high as the car top. The performance resulted in an order for a Cadillac on the spot.

The car was kept going about the streets of Omaha all day and its performance caused no end of comment. It was practically the only car that ventured outside the city limits that day. To give traction and make steering possible in the deep snow, two anti-skid chains were used on each wheel.

Huchberger & McFadden have the agency for the Cadillac eight in Glendale and vicinity and have on exhibition a picture of the car plowing through the snow in the city of Omaha.—(Adv.)

OPPOSE MEDICAL FADS.

LOMA LINDA, March 22.—(Special)—A note of warning against "correspondence course doctors" and medical fads was sounded this afternoon by Seventh Day Adventist physicians of the Pacific Coast, assembled in medical convention at the Loma Linda Sanitarium and College of Medical Evangelists here. L. A. Hansen, of Washington, D. C., assistant secretary of the medical missionary department of the denomination, said "it is absurd to suppose that a young man can go to Chicago or New York take a six months' training, and be able to give a proper diagnosis." He told of one instance of a physician, so-called, who admitted having taken only a "course of reading at a library."

The physicians present expressed themselves as opposed to any such incompetency. Cures are brought about by such practioners, they said because of improper diagnosis, and such doctors depend upon the ignorance and credulity of the public for their patronage. To secure the highest possible scientific efficiency and to conduct Adventist sanitariums not as institutions for financial gain, but as self supporting philanthropic enterprises wholly, were the resolutions passed at this morning's session.

To raise the standard of training schools for missionary nurses conducted by the denomination is the aim of a resolution passed tonight. A commission on efficiency, uniformity and economy in coast institutions of the Adventists, appointed by the Pacific Union Conference committee, was approved.

If those British liners must fly a neutral flag, why not that of Switzerland? Thus they would have the advantage of the protection of the famous Alpine navy.

Time brings its compensations. Had the thirteen original colonies remained perfectly loyal, there might now be no neutral American flag to protect English ships.

The city attorney reported with reference to the opening and widening of Orange Grove avenue, that the court had confirmed the report of the referees and granted an interlocutory degree in the matter. The city engineer was instructed to prepare and furnish to the city manager a diagram of the work within the assessment district.

The Merchants' tax ordinance was now taken up for a third and final reading. There being a large number of merchants present, many questions were asked concerning the benefits to be derived from the enforcement of such an ordinance. W. H. Crane, secretary of the Merchants association made a statement to the trustees outlining why the merchants wish such an ordinance passed and also stating that great care had been taken to word the ordinance in such a way that it will not work an injustice to the consumer. Many of the merchants present expressed themselves as favoring such an ordinance but insisted that they did not wish it understood that the ordinance should remain in effect if it in any way allowed local merchants to control prices to the detriment of the citizens of Glendale and vicinity. After reading the ordinance and discussing the various sections and making some changes in the same, the ordinance was adopted, the trustees voting as follows: Ayes, Grist, Lane, Thompson, Tower; Nays, Williams. A synopsis of the ordinance as passed appears in another column of this issue. Read it and file it away for reference.

City Treasurer Hoffman asked for permission to have the city engineer prepare three maps of Glendale for his office. The treasurer was advised that all that is necessary is to ask the city manager to give him an order for the maps.

A communication from Mrs. Mary Timmons asked that on account of her being the widow of a Civil war veteran, she be exempt from paying this year's taxes, and that she receive a refund of taxes paid the two preceding years, amounting in all to $27.26. City Attorney Evans advised the board that he did not consider they were legally under obligation to return the tax of the preceding years, but he thought from a moral standpoint it might be a good plan to allow the request. On motion the same was allowed.

On motion the bus license ordinance which was considered several weeks ago, was laid on the table.

The clerk read a resolution prepared by certain members of the board of trustees, thanking the Chamber of Commerce for the interest they had manifested in making the report which had been received at the previous meeting of the trustees. The resolution was adopted and ordered spread upon the minutes and a copy furnished to the Chamber of Commerce. The resolution appears in full in another column of this issue.

EXECUTION DEFERRED.

Glenn Witt, who, with Charles Oxnam entered the home of William M. Alexander early on the morning of December 23 and shot and killed him while robbing the house, has obtained a new lease of life and he will not be hanged on April 16. On filing of an appeal the supreme court issued an order staying the execution until after the appeal is heard and determined. Technicalities alone stand between Witt and the doom pronounced by Judge Willie, according to the grounds set forth in the plea for a new trial.

REALTY LIABLE FOR STREET ASSESSMENTS.

In a decision received Monday at the Los Angeles office of the supreme court it is held that Ocean Park property owners are liable for street improvements on Lake avenue. In the suit of John A. Stanwood and others against J. M. Carson and D. Mulherron several property owners sued to have a cloud removed from their titles for nonpayment of the street improvement assessments, on the ground that notice of the improvements was insufficient. The supreme court held that notice was sufficient and that the assessments were valid.

WHAT MORE COULD HE ASK.

"But she says she has never given you any encouragement."

"Did she say that?"

"She certainly did."

"She told me that her uncle was going to leave her a fortune and that he had one foot in the grave. If that is not encouragement, I'd like to know what you call it."

Although a Long Beach man who wrote a threatening letter demanding $5000 didn't get the money, he stands a fair chance of getting something.

Sometime there will be a fine continental automobile highway, and then the people who want to see California will not so much mind a shortage of Pullmans.

Marriage fees have been reduced in Boston, but that is no great encouragement to matrimony. It is the upkeep that costs.
